"LA CIGALE."

The three act comedy "La Cigale" was presented in Robertson Hall on Tuesday last Wednesday evening by the Edmonton amateur dramatic club to large and appreciative audiences. The cast of the play was as follows: "La Cigale," Miss A. V. McLeod; Baronne des Allures, Miss A. Robertson; Armand, Miss Segers; Catharine, an artist's model, Miss Calvert; Marignan, and Michu, artists, Messrs. F. de Journal and Geo. Voyer; Marquis de la Houpe, P. Short; Carassonne, a circus proprietor, E. R. Bili; a strong man, W. H. Cooper; Turbot, a publican, E. L. Smith and J. K. Macdonald, as Butler to the Baronne des Allures. The first scene opened in the public room of an inn at Barbizon where Marignan and Michu had brought "La Cigale," whom they had rescued on her running away from the circus to escape the insults of male members of the company there aided by Carassonne. She tells the artists her story. Marignan finds that 300 francs will purchase the freedom of La Cigale and buys her off. Marignan and Michu then have to meet Adele, Marignan's lover, but before going Marignan hands La Cigale another 100 francs for her immediate necessities. She has fallen in love with Marignan and consents to leave him and how she can repay his kindness. The act closes by the appearance of Dulcote who discovers that La Cigale is the lost heiress of a noble wealthy family and the representative of a title conferred by the King of France.

The second scene opens in the drawing room of the Baronne des Allures, near Paris. Dulcote appears and arranges with the Baronne, La Cigale's aunt for the reception of the Marquis and Count de la Houpe, so that the young count may pay his addresses to La Cigale. La Cigale is instructed in the story of her life she is to tell the Count and is warned to say nothing of having been an acrobat. The La Houppes appear and the young people are left to gether and marry. Michu explains. The Count loves Adele and La Cigale says she loves another so they agree to be very good friends. This act closes by Marignan, Michu and Adele being brought in unconscious, having been upset when rowing and rescued. Adele first recovered and taken to her room then Michu is removed, and the old Marquis is left with Marignan and a smelling bottle. La Cigale appears and recognizes Marignan, but is drawn away by the Baronne. La Cigale holds Marignan back when she is pulled away Marignan is drawn from the couch to the ground, where he indulges in the action of swimming. He is ultimately taken to his room, and when recovered, he with Michu and Adele take their departure.

The third act is laid in the artists studio with Catharine posing as a washerwoman. La Cigale who has run away from her aunt's matrimonial arrangements for her and rejoined the circus, appears in acrobat's costume and explains to Marignan. The act ends with the arrangement of a marriage between Marignan and La Cigale. The club can hardly be praised too highly for the manner in which they performed the comedy. The title role in the hands of Miss McLeod was played naturally, and as perfectly as many performances we have seen in the old country by star actresses. The natural, innocent abandon of the acrobat, which she could not shake off in the second act when dressed in satin, the actress way in which she told her story to Count de la Houpe when he was to press his suit, her passionate clinging to her pack of cards and her faith in their prophecies, were all performed so well as to leave no room for abject criticism. F. de Journal as Marignan, was manly and straightforward. The manner in which he used the words "you bet" to assure La Cigale of his protection, and the second time when he was a combination which won the house. His swimming act in the second scene was perfect. He was evidently in his element. Michu and Adele were well represented by Geo. Voyer and Miss Segers and though their opportunities were so great as to make leading actors, they made the most of them. C. R. Fitts, as the Marquis and Miss A.

Robertson as the Baronne, sustained their parts perfectly. Miss Calvert as Catharine, made a good model. P. Short as Marignan, the Count, was a little stiff the first night, but quite natural the second evening. W. Short as Dulcote, as might be expected, made a good lawyer, and E. R. Bili, as Carassonne, Bili and Turbot were good as the Butlers. J. K. Macdonald as the Butler was as sedate and deliberate as any Butler could be and fitted the part perfectly. The two songs by E. R. Bili and Miss McLeod were appreciated. The club certainly deserves the support of the townspeople in their efforts to elevate and amuse the public.

A BOND OF UNION.

Under this heading the Globe says editorially: The accession of Mr. Laurier to the premiership of Canada will be a bond of union between the two great divisions of the people. Mr. Laurier is of the race and the faith of the minority, but he has energetically disclaimed the idea of seeking the advancement of his race or creed at the expense of the nation. Speaking to his constituents in Quebec some time ago he said: "I love England, I love British institutions, and why? Because under British institutions, under the banner of St. George, my fellow-countrymen of French origin have found far greater freedom than we could ever have hoped for had we remained subject to France. If I wanted examples or precepts of art I would go to France; if I wanted philosophical counsels I would go to Germany, but for means of government, for all economical principles, I go to the land of sound common sense—old England."

Twenty years ago he told a Quebec audience that he had too much respect for the faith in which he was born to use it as the basis of a political organization:—"You wish to organize a Catholic party; but have you not considered that if you have the misfortune to succeed you will draw upon your country calamities of which it is impossible to foresee the consequences? You wish to organize all the Catholics into one party, without other bonds, without other basis, than a common religion; but have you not reflected that by that very fact you will organize the Protestant population as a single party, and that then, instead of the peace and harmony now prevailing between the different elements of the Canadian population, you throw open the door to war, a religious war, the most terrible of all wars."

And in the House of Commons last session, during the debate on the coercion bill, he said: "So long as I have a seat in this house, so long as I occupy the position I do now, whenever it shall become my duty to take a stand upon any question whatever, that I will take, not from the point of view of Roman Catholicism, not from the point of view of Protestantism, but from a point of view which can appeal to the consciences of all men, irrespective of their particular faith, upon grounds which can be occupied by all men who love justice, freedom and toleration."

We know that this declaration, and Mr. Laurier's opposition to coercion, brought him into conflict with the heads of his own church. But we know also that Mr. Laurier has been supported in his attitude by an overwhelming majority of his own people. The English-speaking people of Canada show their confidence in him, and we believe that he will continue to grow in the confidence of all, irrespective of race or creed, as a true Canadian, whose first thought is for Canada.

A POLICY OF DEVELOPMENT.

Free Press: During the sessions of the immigration convention, when enthusiasm over the aims of the association was general and fervid throughout the Dominion, expression, reiteration and emphasis were given one important conclusion. Opinion was unanimous that the Dominion's future prosperity and progress depended on the colonization and advancement of Western Canada. Nothing has intervened since the expression of such views, which modifies the situation. The shuffling of parties at Ottawa does not in the least ensure a new era of better times for the Dominion, unless the new government realize more clearly and practically than the old, that the colonization and development of the West must have a paramount place in a new national policy. In the past, this fact has not been realized by the liberal party. In the near future, the attitude of Manitoba, the Northwest and British Columbia towards the new government will be determined solely by the attitude of that government towards the West.

In the Old Country, there is a plethora of idle capital, a surplus of money, lying useless and unproductive, in over-stocked vaults. In Canada, there are inexhaustible natural resources, of forest, of mine and of boundless, fertile plains, lying undeveloped, awaiting the vivifying touch of capital to pour out rich profits and abundant returns for all the money invested. There is no cheap money phantom to affright capital from Canada. There are no alien laws to drive from the shores of the Dominion, the immigrant, who is far more indispensable than capital. Capital and colonists must be brought to Canada. Both are essential for the development of the West. To attract them must be the aim of any government that hopes to woo the favor, win the support and retain the allegiance of Manitoba, the Northwest and British Columbia.

BRITISH PRESS COMMENTS.

The Times says, this morning, of the result of the Canadian elections: "We are glad to see a man of the French race (Hon. Wilfred Laurier) premier of the Dominion, because it is another conspicuous token of the solidarity of the two races beneath the British flag." On the subject of the Canadian tariff, the Times says: "No very sweeping changes are to be expected. Still, any changes that are introduced are likely to be in the direction of an assimilation with the tariff of the mother country. There have been periods when the sentiments of the Canadian liberals towards Great Britain were believed to be more than cold. But all hesitation has since passed away. The new premier and his adherents are as unimpeachable in their loyalty to England as their conservative rivals."

The Chronicle, liberal, says: "Certain liberals in Canada have always been regarded as the friends of Washington. While Mr. Laurier's staunch and never failing loyalty to British institutions relieves that friendship of any ultimate political object on his side, we in England will heartily welcome any step his party is able to take to bring the whole English speaking race into a more intimate commercial, and, perhaps, even in time, political alliance."

GENERAL NEWS.

Before leaving Macleod for the Yukon Mr. D. W. Davis was tendered a big banquet by the citizens of that town and the ranchers and others in the vicinity. The affair was a great success and a good send-off to Mr. Davis.—Lethbridge News.

The Earl of Aberdeen has presented to the Royal Zoological society of Ireland a young cow moose deer, about ten months old, perfectly healthy and in good condition. His excellency had also procured a male moose for the same destination, but unfortunately it died before the time came for shipment.

Bradlaugh's work is not long surviving him. The old headquarters of militant atheism in England, known as the hall of Science, has been transferred to the Salvation army. The transfer, beyond its irony, marks the disappearance of the Bradlaugh type of freethinkers. The atheists do not now own a single hall in London.

More than half the members of the new parliament were not members of the old one. The number is 107. Of these sixty-two will sit with the liberals, 36 with the conservatives, and 9 will belong to Independents and Patrons. Ontario elected 39 new members, Quebec 23. Nova Scotia 8, New Brunswick 10, Manitoba and the Territories 9, Prince Edward Island 3, and British Columbia 4.

The longest bridge in the world is the Lion bridge, near Sangang, in China. It extends for a half mile over an area of the Yellow sea, and is supported by 300 huge stone arches. The roadway is 70 feet above the water and inclosed in an iron network. A marble lion, 21 feet long, rests on the crown of each pillar. The bridge was built at the command of the Emperor Keing Long.—London Globe.

Advices from Cuba state that at a meeting of generals in command of the Spanish army it was decided to adopt the following plans for the rainy season: To suspend all operations for the present, and offer large rewards to countrymen who will give information to be of benefit against insurgents, this information to be given to officers commanding the different posts, and all persons who have farms on either side of the trocha must retire to the towns at once as in Weyler's opinion they assist the insurgents, the sea coast to be more closely watched so that Maceo cannot receive assistance from the outside: all cattle, horses, hogs in pastures, and fields to be destroyed, the insurgents having less to live on, and high prices to be put on the heads of all the principal leaders of the insurgents.

It is officially announced that the resignations of Mr. Cecil Rhodes, Mr. Alfred Beit and Dr. Rutherford Harris, as directors of the British South African company, have been accepted. The first named tendered his resignation some months ago as a result of the disclosures made regarding the raid into the Transvaal, which implicated Rhodes, Beit and others, but action was suspended at the request of Rhodes, who was then about to engage the Matabele, Rhodes, however, it was further announced will reside in Rhodesia and assist the British South African company to administer the territory under its control. Dr. Harris was the secretary for the British South Africa company at Cape Town. The acceptance of the resignation of Messrs. Rhodes, Beit and Harris, is undoubtedly the outcome of the recent demand of the government of South Africa for the prosecution of Rhodes and the others implicated with him in the Transvaal raid.

A British official report contains the following account of the second massacre of Armenians at Ooria: "Then took place the burning of the Ooria. Armenian cathedral, incapable of holding 3,000 persons. The priest administered the sacrament, and the last sacrament is proved to be to 1,800 souls. These remained in the cathedral all night, and in the morning were joined by several hundred more, who sought the protection of a building they considered safe from mob violence. Three thousand individuals were crowded in the edifice when the mob attacked it. They (the Turks) at first fired in through the windows, then smashed in the iron doors and proceeded to massacre all those, mostly men, who were on the ground floor. Having thus disposed of the men, and having removed some of the younger women, they rifled the church treasure, shrines and ornaments, to the extent of some $17,600, destroying the pictures and relics, mockingly calling on Christ now to prove himself a greater prophet than Mahomet. Having collected a quantity of bedding and the church matting they poured some 30 cans of kerosene on it, as also on the dead bodies lying about, and then set fire to the whole. The gallery beams and the wooden framework soon caught fire. Whereupon, blocking up the staircases leading to the gallery with similar inflammable material, they left the masses of struggling human beings to become the prey of the flames."

WETASKIWIN SPORTS.

MANITOBA CROP REPORT.
Bulletin 49 issued by the department of agriculture and immigration of Manitoba, is to hand and shows the acreage under crop in that province this year to be as follows:
Wheat, 1,081,900; oats, 442,445; barley, 127,855; flax, 20,325; acres; peas, 3130; corn, 1103; acres; corn, 700; acres; potatoes, 12,200; acres; roots, 115. The total under all crops is 1,696,325 acres, being 111,213 acres less than last year.
Since 1883 when the first crop bulletin was issued there has not been such a wet season for seeding. This change, although retarding seedling, may prove most beneficial to the province as a whole. The date of seeding commenced on April 20th and was finished by June 10th.
There are 25 creameries and 49 cheese factories in operation in the province this year. The number of hired farm laborers is about 6,500.

GENERAL NEWS.
Macdonnell, liberal has been elected for Selkirk, Manitoba, by a majority of 39.
The Manitoba Liberal published at Portage la Prairie, printed its issue of June 24th in red ink as an election number and held its report of the returns "Tupper's Tumble."
A special cable dispatch from London says that Sir Mackenzie Bowell, when seen regarding the elections said the news came as an unpleasant surprise. The 20th anniversary of the result was not unexpected to him. Sanford Fleming, one of the delegates to the cable conference, said he expected the government would be sustained, and was genuinely surprised at the result.
According to official figures, the annual consumption of beer in this country was tripled within the past twenty years. The present enormous output of 1,000,000 gallons annually gives a consumption officially stated at 14.95 gallons per head in 1876. Thus the consumption per head has a little more than doubled in the same time that the total consumption has tripled.—Chicago Chronicle.
Six thousand Sioux, the remnant of the most powerful fighters of the American Indians, are celebrating the great event of their history—the 20th anniversary of the annihilation of Custer's command on Little Big Horn, June 25, 1876. They have gathered at the scene of the terrible massacre and though peaceable, introducing all fantastic dances and ceremonies incident to their traditions, there will be another big celebration on July 4.
A Buffalo telegram of June 26, says: The supreme lodge A. O. U. W., after being in session in this city for two weeks, adjourned to-day to meet next year at Milwaukee. The most important action taken prior to adjournment was the adoption of a resolution giving power to grand lodges to levy a graded assessment instead of the present assessment. It is left to the different grand lodges to adopt or reject this change as they may desire.
A royal decree has been issued authorizing the Spanish bank at Havana to emit $12,000,000 in gold bills in denominations of ten five, three and one dollars, and in fractional denominations of fifty, thirty, and ten and five cents, the above sum to be delivered by the treasury in payment of current obligations. The government will deposit in the vaults of the bank $3,000,000 in silver, besides a part of the stamp tax collected by it. The government is authorized to enforce the circulation of these notes.
Referring to the death of Sir Leonard Tilley, the Vancouver Post says: Sir Leonard was singularly gifted; he possessed all those qualities that appeal to men of honor, and who despise wrong-doing. It would be difficult to say whether Protestant or Catholic loved him most, for he rose above creed and nationality to proclaim his faith in Canada a nation. A brave sentinel has fallen in Israel. Let us hope that others, now about to take up the reins of government, though on different grounds, than those which Sir Leonard professed, will emulate him in the grandeur of his spotless life and the magnificent citizenship that marked his honorable career.
A recent telegram from Vancouver says: The British Columbia mining boom is growing to big dimensions. English capital is flooding the country almost begging investment. To-day five cities are in the midst of a boom in the Yale district, sold for $100,000 to London mine investors, although the free milling rock of the claims only assays $8.50 per ton. The tremendous demand for low and high grade mines alike is said to be owing to the fact that the province and Barney Barnato have experts all over the country reporting on mines. In spite of the great wealth of the Kootenies there is great poverty there owing to the surplus population. The boundary country of South Kootenay are black with prospectors, with nothing but their kit and feet to carry them through. Rich discoveries are being made daily. Old claims undeveloped for fifteen years are being readily bought.

BY-LAW NO. 116.
A By-Law to authorize the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton to subscribe for shares to the amount of $50,000.00 in the capital stock of the Edmonton District Railway Company.
Whereas, a petition signed by at least three-fourths in number of the resident rate-payers of the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton, submitted to vote on by-laws requiring the assent of the electors, has been presented to the Municipal Council of the said Municipality for the passing and due ratification of a by-law to authorize the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton to subscribe for shares to the amount of $50,000.00 in the capital stock of the Edmonton District Railway;
And Whereas, the said Edmonton District Railway Company contemplate constructing, maintaining and operating a line of railway near to and within the Municipality of the said Municipality, in the opinion of the Municipal Council, interested therein;
And Whereas, it is deemed expedient that the Municipality should subscribe for shares in the said Edmonton District Railway Company to an amount not exceeding $50,000.00, subject to such conditions to be agreed upon between the Municipality and the Company, prior to such subscription as shall appear necessary and expedient to the Municipal Council for the protection of the interests of the said Municipality;
And Whereas, for the purpose aforesaid, it is necessary to borrow the amount of the sum to be subscribed for, either in one sum or in several sums from time to time, as it becomes necessary to pay the calls upon the stock;
And Whereas, it is expedient that the subscription moneys when raised shall be raised by the issue of debentures aggregating the said sum of $50,000.00, payable in twenty years, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. payable half yearly on the first day of January and July in each year;
And Whereas, the amount of the whole rateable property of the Municipality, according to the last revised assessment roll, is $1,131,730.00;
And Whereas, the total amount of the existing debt of the Municipality, outside of the debt due for the current expenses of the year, is $18,510.88, incurred for local improvements, and $10,358.00 incurred for permanent improvements, making in the whole the sum of $28,868.88, whereof no part is in arrears;
And Whereas, it is expedient to provide for the payment of the principal of the said debentures by the creation of an equal yearly sinking fund;
And Whereas, the total amount to be raised annually by special rate for the paying of the said debt by means of a sinking fund as aforesaid, and the interest thereon as aforesaid, is $4012.39;
And Whereas, the annual special rate on the dollar as being sufficient to pay the said interest and to create the said equal yearly sinking fund for the payment of the said debt is 3-10-10 mills;
Therefore, the Mayor and Council of the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton in council assembled, enact as follows:
1. This By-law is to take effect on the first day of June, 1896.
2. The Mayor and Clerk of the Municipality are hereby authorized to issue debentures of the Municipality to the aggregate amount of $50,000.00, payable within twenty years from the day of the date on which this by-law takes effect, with interest at the rate of six per cent. payable half yearly, such debentures to be payable at the office of the Treasurer of the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton, and to have attached to them coupons for the payment of interest.
3. For the purpose of paying the amount which shall be required to be raised annually for the payment of the said interest and creating the equal yearly sinking fund to be set aside for the payment of the principal sum of $50,000.00, a special rate of 3-10-10 mills on the dollar, over and above all other rates and taxes, shall be levied in the same manner and at the same times as the general Municipal taxes, upon the whole rateable property in the Municipality, in each year for the period of twenty years, during which the said debentures shall be current.
4. The said debentures, when so issued as aforesaid, shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the Municipality, and the same, or the proceeds thereof, shall be by him delivered to the Edmonton District Railway Company, only after the passing of, and according to the provisions of a by-law to be hereafter passed by the Municipal Council in that behalf, confirming an agreement to be made hereunder between the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton, and the Edmonton District Railway Company.
